

ENTERPRISE CLOUD SERVER ADMINISTRATION CERTIFICATE

19 Semester Credit Hours; Curriculum: 0128

The Enterprise Cloud Server Administration Certificate is designed to equip IT professionals with the skills needed to manage and administer cloud-based server environments.

Code	Title	Hours
Courses for a Certificate
CNS 105	Networking Essentials	3
CNS 108	Introduction to Cloud Services	3
CNS 121	IT Certification Preparation	1
CNS 221	Enterprise Cloud Services 1	3
CNS 222	Hybrid Server I	3
CNS 223	Hybrid Server II	3
CNS 224	Securing Enterprise Cloud Services	3
Total Hours		19

Due to rapid changes in information technology, we are frequently updating our certificate and degree programs to better prepare you for the job market. Please consult the CNS department chair for help with your pathway.

Note: Students can obtain Credit for Prior Learning through evaluation by Oakton faculty for any of the third-party IT certifications.

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Manage and administer cloud-based server environments.
2. Implement security measures within cloud environments.
3. Implement disaster recovery solutions.